COMMON ORDER:

Questioning the orders of transfer from one Primary Agricultural Co-operative Society to another, the present writ petitions are filed.

The orders of transfer, impugned in this writ petitions, were passed several years ago. In view of the interim order of this court, the petitioners continued to remain in service of the Primary Agricultural Co-operative Society, wherein they were employed prior to the impugned orders of transfer. At this distance of time, no purpose would be served in now giving effect to the impugned orders of transfer.

The impugned orders are accordingly set aside, giving liberty to the respondents, if they so choose, to transfer the petitioners by passing an order afresh, in accordance with law.

The writ petitions are accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
